Psalm 119 - வேதத்தின் மகிமை

Song 1 Let Your mercy and Your salvation

Psalm 119:41-48 (Vau/Waw) – Prayer for God's mercy and salvation to come according to His promise. The psalmist boldly declares he will speak of God's word even before kings and finds delight in His commandments.

Let Your mercy and Your salvation come to me, O Lord
According to Your word, let them be my reward

I trust in Your promise, I wait for Your decree
I keep Your law and delight in Your statutes for me

Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Hallelujah... Hallelujah...

I speak of Your testimonies before kings without shame
Let not Your true word depart from my mouth or name

Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Hallelujah... Hallelujah...

I lift my hands to Your commands with joyful heart
I meditate on Your precepts, never to depart

Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Hallelujah... Hallelujah...

Your mercy and Your salvation come to me, O Lord
According to Your word, let them be my reward

Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Worship... Worship... Only to the Lord
Worship... Worship... All to You alone

Your mercy and Your salvation come to me, O Lord
According to Your word, let them be my reward

Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Hallelujah... Hallelujah...
Worship... Worship... Only to the Lord
Worship... Worship... All to You alone
